

Pablo III - I Open My Eyes Lyrics

You and I were meant to be together
Forever
We even planned the names of our children
You know what we have done wasn't clever
I get it
We fucked it up together

I've tried to accept
You're better off without me
All the regrets
Crying in the darkness
I've tried to accept
Letting go, tryna restart, tryna restart

I open my eyes now I do realize
Life can not shine when you are not mine
Nothing's the same when I do it alone
Trying to accept but I don't get along

All these days I look out of the window
I'm waiting
The time is passing as if in slow motion
You know what I believed love for ever
I get it
It wasn't so clever

I've tried to accept
You're better off without me
All the regrets
Crying in the darkness
I've tried to accept
Letting go, tryna restart, tryna restart

I open my eyes now I do realize
Life can not shine when you are not mine
Nothing's the same when I do it alone
Trying to accept but I don't get along

I open my eyes now I do realize
Life can not shine when you are not mine
Nothing's the same when I do it alone

Just hold my hand
I'm waiting for you
It's cold outside
But we got July

Still waiting for you
There's no one there
I'm just going home
Into the lonely night

I open my eyes now I do realize
Life can not shine when you are not mine
Nothing's the same when I do it alone

Just hold my hand
I'm waiting for you
Still waiting for you
There's no one there
Just hold my hand
I'm waiting for you
